Chris was graded as a Stunt Action Person in 2002.

Chris' small stature of 5'1" enabled him to be the perfect double for children. His passion for film and tv led to him studying Digital Television Production at JMC Academy, where he made a short film. After 3 years of stunt training and working on various productions including Ghost Rider, Knowing, Salem's Lot, and Ponderosa, Chris became an apprentice jockey, and in the last five years has ridden in over 1200 professional races.

Chris has been snowboarding, snow skiing, and rock climbing since he was 15, and has trained in Parkour and basic gymnastics & Kick Boxing.
