ABOUT ME

My name is Jacob Turner, I am a Graded SAP and have been an Actor in the film industry since late 2016. Throughout my Career so far in the film industry I have trained weekly under Rebekah O'Sullivan at The Acting Space and conducted regular stunt training under Darko Tuscan. I have taken on both lead and supporting roles in many Student and Short Films as well as a few Extra and Bit Part roles in major productions such as Reef Break and King Kong vs Godzilla.

Previous to pursuing my passion for Acting in Film and Television I spent 6 years full time service in the Australian Defence Force – Army. During my time in the Army I was posted to the 5th Battalion of the Royal Australian Regiment (5 RAR) as an Infantry Soldier, Section Commander (Small Teams Commander), and Heavy Weapons Specialist/Instructor. My time in service saw me deployed to various places around Australia and the World such as; Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, UAE, also including active service in Afghanistan in 2010/11 as a part of Mentoring Task Force 2 (MTF-2). I continue my service today as an Active Reservist at a training establishment instructing trainees in Basic Infantry Skills and tactics, Weapons Handling, Combat Shooting, and the Armed Combatant Program (ACP).
